My favorite browser - broken
I've used Chrome for iOS since it was released, but 4 or 5 months ago it started having display issues. Whatever page I am looking at will suddenly display across only 2/3 of the window. Doesn't matter what website, zooming in doesn't work as the page jumps back to being too small and reading anything is useless. I've found   more Consistent, but Safari Wins..

Sorry, I used to LOVE Google Chrome Browser but lately, it just feels bloated and crammed full of ads, you can't escape...

The Desktop version was a 4/5* but one issue with iOS is ALL "Browsers" rely   more

New window drag option
This happens so many times it's a nuisance. When using the app on my iPad, sometimes I will drag the tabs around to organize them and it will create a new window by accident when I didn't meant them to. Then I have to copy and paste the link back into my current window and exit the new window away. However when   more
